Cites Poor Health

Carter to Quit Glades Central

Principal Roy F. Carter, who has guided Glades Central High School through three years as the consolidated high school in the Belle Glade area, is quitting his position.

Carter, citing poor health as his major reason, is being reassigned as program specialist in the county's Migrant Education program.

"I've had some bad health this past year," Carter said Tuesday. "and I asked Dr. (School Superintendent Joseph) Carroll and Mr. (West Area Superintendent James) Maynor two months ago for reassignment."

Carroll was to have recommended Carter for the migrant education position during a Palm Beach County School Board meeting Wednesday evening at Lake Shore Junior High School.

Carter said he didn't want to leave the Glades area and he originally asked for a position as principal of an elementary school in the area, which wouldn't carry with it the stress in his current position, but there were none open.

He said he was informed the program specialist position was open and he applied for it and had been informed by Carroll and Maynor that he could have it.

"I'll be working with the migrant program throughout the county," Carter said, "but I'll be based out here. Then, when an elementary position opens, I'll ask for it."

Carroll said Tuesday he has been satisfied with Carter's performance at Glades Central and stressed the move is being made at Carter's own request.

"He was recommended as principal for next year to the school board by me," Carroll said, "but he's asked for this new position and he's qualified for it so I'm recommending tomorrow night the school board make the reassignment."

"I'm very sorry it happened," he said, "but he said he was under doctor's orders to get into something without the stress of the job he now has."

"It's a very strenuous job," Carroll said. "Sometimes I don't believe most people realize the pressure on a high school principal today."

As an indication of how strenuous the job is, Carroll said that within the past three and a half years, there has been an 80 per cent turnover in principals of high school in the county.

During that same time, there has been a 50 per cent turnover among middle school principals and only a 20 per cent turnover in elementary school principals.

"I've been asked by several people if this is political," Carter said, referring to a current suit against the school board by Lake Shore Junior High Principal Charles McCurdy, "but it isn't. It's because of health."

Carroll said he was in U. S. District Judge Norman Roettger's court Tuesday morning in an attempt to maintain a stay while the court's previous order to replace Carter with McCurdy is under appeal in the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court in New Orleans.

The district court had ordered the school board to install McCurdy as principal on grounds the board was practicing racial discrimination when McCurdy was passed over twice for the principal's position.

McCurdy was principal of the former Lake Shore High School at the time it was merged with the old Belle Glade High School in 1970.

Belle Glade High principal Pellon Morris resigned his job as principal of the school at that time and Martin Gold was named the first Glades Central principal while McCurdy was named to principal of the Lake Shore annex.

Gold was transferred to Suncoast High School for the 1971-72 school year and Carter was named to replace him while McCurdy was named principal of Lake Shore Junior High School.

McCurdy filed suit in October 1973 that he was passed over twice by the board because of racial discrimination.

Carroll said that while it was true no blacks have been named principal of Glades Central or Pahokee High Schools, he feels the court should look at the county as a whole, pointing out blacks have been assigned as principals of other schools, in some cases, predominately white high schools.

"This is a matter of competence, not racial discrimination," Carroll said. "Being principal of a senior high school in these times is a whole new ball game and it's a lot more difficult."

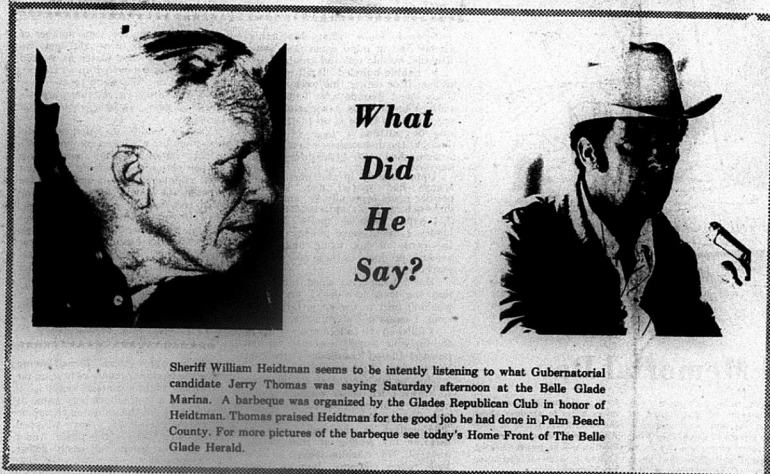

Among those appearing in court Tuesday to testify for McCurdy was Belle Glade City Commissioner William Greer and Mrs. Ida Mizell, who brought in a petition signed by people wanting McCurdy named principal of Glades Central.

But if McCurdy gets the job, it will apparently have to be through court action.

Carroll said he is withholding action to replace Carter pending Judge Roettger's decision.

He is now setting up interviews with applicants but he said he has no intention of assigning the post to McCurdy.

What Did
He Say?

Sheriff William Heidtman seems to be intently listening to what gubernatorial candidate Jerry Thomas was saying Saturday afternoon at the Belle Glade Marina. A barbecue was organized by the Glades Republican Club in honor of Heidtman. Thomas praised Heidtman for the good job he had done in Palm Beach County. For more pictures of the barbecue see today's Home Front of The Belle Glade Herald.

No Hook-Ups Allowed

Sewer Info Still Stalled

An expected avalanche of requests for permission to connect to the city's sewer system didn't take place Wednesday morning because conditions haven't been met on a Temporary Operating Permit for the city's treatment plant.

City Manager William Mallory said he plans during a work session of the city commission Monday afternoon he expected the conditions to have been met by Belsky Wild and Associates, the city's consulting engineers.

Belsky Wild representative A. J. Birchall told Mallory he hadn't yet been able to meet the requirements set up by the State Department of Pollution Control office in Fort Lauderdale.

"The conditions are largely information required by the Palm Beach County Health Department local pollution control agency before they will approve connections."

Mallory said he intends to call Birchall, who has returned to his Ormond Beach office, twice a day until Birchall informs him the condition has been met.

He said the conditions had still not been met as of late Tuesday afternoon.

In the meantime, Mallory said a survey has indicated more than 200 Belle Glade residents expect to apply for permission to connect to the sewer system within the next 18 months.

He said Monday there were a large number of contractors ready to apply for connections as soon as the go-ahead is given.

Besides Birchall's report of his failure to meet state agency demands, he made an explicit recommendation to build a one million gallon per day package treatment plant in the northeast section of the city.

Since this was a work session, the commissioners could take no action but Commissioner John Grady said he wants to wait and make sure the city is doing "the right thing."

"What we don't need is conjecture," Grady said. "I want [approval] in writing from the Department of Pollution Control. Some where along the line, we've got to find reality."

In other action at the work session, the commission: Gave Police Chief Charles Goodlett tentative approval to go ahead on his own with construction of a second floor room at the police station.

Goodlett told the commissioners he felt a city work force, working under the direction of himself, City Building Inspector Garth Lewis and city Fire Chief Floyd Smith, could build the addition for $12,500.

During an earlier special session, when the commission first agreed to have the second floor facility built, it estimated the cost would be $20,000 if it were built on a contract basis.

Goodlett pointed out Monday, three weeks after the initial approval which still hasn't been acted upon, that he supervised the construction of the original jail and police station, the fire station, the city garage and other buildings.

He received tentative approval to begin work "tomorrow" with a promise of backup approval to come at the next regular city commission meeting Monday night.

The City Commissioners also tentatively agreed, on the basis of the approval of Goodlett and Smith, for Miami architect Homer Daniels to go ahead with final plans for a $450,000 addition to be located in the proposed city hall complex.

Little hope was held out, however, for a city resolution supporting a county-wide study on non-point pollution, such as runoff from parking lots and roads.

Palm Beach County Area Planning Board Director Frank W. Bruitt requested the city for the resolution, saying it would help obtain federal funds for the study.

Boozers Beware!

The South Bay City Commission decided in a split vote Tuesday night to spend $2,100 of city funds on a machine to tell whether a person is intoxicated.

Police Chief August Dreessen asked for the Breathalyzer because he said the city has been having to reduce charges on Driving While Intoxicated arrests since it presently has no means to prove intoxication.

He said the city has traditionally used equipment owned by the Sheriff's Office or the Belle Glade Police Department but this equipment is getting harder and harder to use.

"We have two qualified Breathalyzer technicians," he said, "but they're useless without a machine to operate."

He later said he and Police Officer Angela Kelsoe are the technicians he referred to before the commission.

Dreessen recommended for the $2,100 machine by a 3-2 vote, with Mayor Vernita Cox and Commissioner Esther Berry voting against the purchase.

Miss Berry provided most of the vocal opposition, saying first she believed less expensive ways of proving intoxication could be found, then that the police department has more pressing needs.

She finally argued, when Dreessen and Commissioner John Dutton and Neal Mayo assured her the Breathalyzer is the department's most pressing need at the moment, that she couldn't justify such an expenditure to the people of the city.

She agreed with Dreessen intoxicated drivers on the city's streets is a terrible thing but said, "I think it's a terrible thing to spend this much money on something like this. If I think we need to re-order our priorities," she said.

Voicing for the measure were Commissioners Dutton, Mayo and Woodrow "Woody" O'Neal, with O'Neal providing the deciding vote.

In other action: The commission approved a state of five members for the South Bay Housing Authority.

Grady appeared at a banquet held in Michigan by the Michigan State American Party during its convention May 19.

Grady said Tuesday he has spoken to the American Party state conventions in Indiana, Tennessee, Michigan and of course, Florida during his campaign and expects to speak to the conventions in Georgia, Texas and Kansas during the next three weeks.

More than 200 party members and dignitaries filled the banquet room of the Hilton Motor Hotel in Detroit for the Michigan convention, a party butting more than $5,500 towards Grady's campaign.

Grady said he has no intention of assigning the post to McCurdy.

Baton Champ

Kathy Ballard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ballard of 224 N. W. Ave. N., recently won the St. Miss Majorette of Palm Beach County in National Baton Twirling Association competition.

Miss Ballard, a graduating senior at Glades Day School has also won the juvenile and junior titles as well as the State Strutting Championship.

She has been accepted as a majorette at Troy State University in Troy, Ala. and is the recipient of the Louise B. Rhodes scholarship presented annually by the Junior Women's Club of Belle Glade.

State Rd. 80 Attempts Fail In Legislature-Election Bill Law

Two attempts to write the four-laning of SR80 into the 1974-75 state Department of Transportation's budget failed this week but another bill resulting from local elections is now law.

State Representative Tom Lewis reported Tuesday he had made two attempts Tuesday to insert provisions into the overall appropriations bill insuring funds for the purchase of right of way and construction of the SR80 four-laning project.

Rep. Marshall Harris of Miami commented the House can't, "do this for every little road in the state. Lewis agreed, but pointed out the SR80 project has been in the works for 10 years and he felt it was time Glades residents had some guarantee."

Lewis reported more success with another bill which is the result of poorly publicized elections held to choose supervisors of the Palm Beach-Broward Soil and Water Conservation District.

Under the old arrangement, the elections were the responsibility of the state Department of Agriculture. There were as few as three polling places in the two-county area, the elections received little or no advance publicity and voters were required to be freeholders.

According to the new law, Lewis said the elections will be the responsibility of the state elections supervisor and will be held during the second primary election every two years.

The freeholder requirement was also thrown out. The polling places will be those used for all county-wide elections.

Lewis said he was first made aware of the problem by an editorial in the Herald and several complaints he received from local residents following an election the district held Oct. 16, 1973.

This was the second consecutive election held by the district with little or no publicity preceding it. Lewis said he found upon investigation the same situation prevailed in the 59 soil and water conservation districts throughout the state.

Lewis said he was surprised to find no opposition from the state Department of Agriculture. He said department officials even went so far as to suggest further modifications but he felt it best to proceed "one step at a time."

The Palm Beach County Legislator described his bill as a "housecleaning" type of legislation, which would cost the public no more but would make the districts more responsible to the people.

Lewis said Tuesday the bill had been approved May 10 on the House floor and has since become law. He said he wasn't sure whether Gov. Reubin Askew had signed it but said ten days had passed without a veto and this was sufficient.

The 60 soil and water conservation districts are funded through state and federal agencies to conduct surveys, investigations and research relating to soil erosion, floodwaters and soil and water resources.

Since the district was organized in 1964, 554 landowners managing more than 600,000 acres in Palm Beach and Broward Counties have become cooperators with the district.

It's Our Loss

Nobody likes to see the public lose a good man who has served well in a hard position to fill.

We don't like to see Glades Central lose Roy Carter, but when the pressure inherent in a job like principal of the local high school begins to affect his health, we can't blame him for looking for a somewhat easier job.

During his three-year tenure at Glades Central, Carter, with the help and cooperation of his faculty and the students, did what a lot of people on the coast thought was an impossible task.

He inherited his job in the trying time immediately following the consolidation of the two high schools in Belle Glade and the year before he was given the principalship of Glades Central, while he was principal at Belle Glade Junior High, wasn't very pleasant.

That was the year of the two campuses, and two principals, making up one high school, the year when 10th graders were spending half the day on the Glades Central campus and half on the "South" or "Lake Shore Campus".

That was the year Belle Glade was polarized by an ugly outbreak of open racial violence and people were openly making book on the coast on how long it would be before Carter faced the same problem.

Well, the people of the Glades, the students at the high school, the Glades Central faculty and Carter himself, made sure the city slickers had to eat a little crow.

Glades Central was the only high school in the country which didn't have some kind of an open racial flare-up and we're kind of proud of that, even if we didn't have much to do with it.

But Carter has had a tough job and it's had a telling effect on his health and, although he isn't leaving the school system or the Glades, he is leaving his job.

He's also leaving a pair of somewhat oversized shoes to fill.

Win in Some, Lose Some

Well, You win some and you lose some, or, to quote another mossbacked cliché, we got some bad news and we got some good news.

The news, good and bad, came from State Rep. Tom Lewis.

First, the bad news. After two attempts, he wasn't able to get a guarantee written into the general appropriations bill that $350,000 would be funded, especially the right of way.

But, now for the good news. He was able to ram through, with surprising ease, a bill overhauling the elections practices of the Palm Beach-Broward Soil and Water Conservation District.

Actually, the overhaul job applies to the other 59 districts too, but we've been particularly concerned with the local district...and that's the one which influenced Lewis' bill.

That's the outfit which, up until the recent special election when Fred John was elected, gave no notice of elections and then seemed to try to hide the polling places and use short election hours.

All that's changed now. Elections will be held under the authority and responsibility of the state elections board.

Polling places will be in any place you would ordinarily vote in a county-wide election.

Elections will be held along with the regular, non-partisan second primary elections, in the voting machines.

And the requirement that voters be freeholders has been thrown out.

That's the law and we think it's a good one.

We pushed hard for reform in the district's election practices, and, to give credit where credit is due, those reforms have had the support of at least some of the district supervisors.

This law, described by Lewis himself as a "housecleaning" law, isn't among the earthshaking types but it does bring still another governmental agency a little more under the control of the people and that's good.

Thanks, Tom. We needed that.

The Americans Thank Author

Gordon Sinclair, a Canadian broadcaster who has become one of America's best loved men, was presented with the "Man of the Year" award by Sarah Coventry, the internationally known direct selling jewelry firm.

Mr. Sinclair authored "The Americans," an outspoken defense of the United States which is currently climbing to the top of the hit record charts. With remarkable generosity he donated his royalties to the American Red Cross. This action—so in keeping with his words—was especially appreciated by Sarah Coventry, a company with a strong charitable concern.

Sarah Coventry's President Rex Wood presented the "Man of the Year" trophy in Toronto saying, "We salute you for your meaningful commentary and contributions to the American people. A widespread audience is strengthened by your defense of individual rights and the free enterprise system."

"We're Right Behind You, Comrades!"

A Special Memorial Day

Dear Editor:

This is a rather special Memorial Day coming up next Monday for many of our American heroes. Vietnam is past. The boys no longer lie belly down in muddy rice paddies. Fingers glued to their rifles.

They no longer stare from barbed-wire enclosures while endlessly for the hour of liberation. The scream of shells for them is silenced. They're home again with their families, meeting the day-to-day problems we all face.

But not all of them are home. And it is with these men our thoughts dwell on this Memorial Day—not with the heroes, not with the returned POW's, not with the shined buttons officers or just plain GI Joe's.

Our thoughts fly to the long wards of military hospitals where lie men who may never return home. For some of these men the roar of battle will never cease.

We pay tribute to our dead warriors. Let us this Memorial Day stand in silence to honor those who have returned with life but with faded hope, to honor those who can no longer understand the meaning of the word.

We would not deal in words that claim their sacrifice was made for us. There are many who would say the war was a futile exercise in destruction. But aren't a few of us?

What matters now is that these men played out a part in the game of life. How well they performed is recorded on pages more permanent than documents of state. Like us who live and work and walk the streets of earth, they have a record made one day to be presented before the great Judge of the universe, or God.

His citations will echo through the corridors of time. His award will never tarnish.

for it is eternal life in an earth never again to shudder under the destructive forces of men. And the broken hearts of families will be forever healed. Here is a sweet conclusion for Memorial Day.

He Asks for Help

Dear Sir:

The spirit which the mass members of communication and leftist Congressmen and Senators have created in our great Nation is far afield from that created by our Founding Fathers some 200 years ago when God-fearing patriots established this great country under the Christian principles of Divine Law. The 20th Century, however, is willing to sacrifice these tenets of honesty and integrity for personal reasons which has called for the creation of the President of the United States on groundsless allegations and charges presented by self-coined perjurers operating under guarantees of judicial immunity which precludes prosecution for their own satanic deeds.

The leader of the Congressional efforts at the destruction of our President is one who has been impeached even by the newspapers in his home district for selling out to George Meany and the A.F.L.-C.I.O. for funds on which to operate his own campaign for his seat as the Congressman from New Jersey. Several of the Senators, who sit as accusers of the President, also received much publicity for illegal financial involvements in their campaigns, especially the Watergate investigators from Connecticut and New Mexico. It only proves the wisdom expressed in the May Newsletter of Post 12, the American Legion: "Don't let the fellow with dirty hands wash the dishes."

If you are willing to support me as an independent or as a Republican (if this party will acknowledge the situation that exists and pledge itself to work tirelessly to remedy it), I would be interested in hearing from you and to receive donations to undertake the hard and vigorous campaign during the forthcoming six months and in the period following as your Representative in Washington.

Yours in the Master's service,
Charles William Hanks

Now I know what Macbeth's witches had in mind when they sang "Bubble, bubble toil and trouble". "Bubble bubbled" it sh over the kitchen floor earlier this week. Young Glenn spent four days in Tallahassee at the Florida Press Association. So I was trying to make it up to the little lade by putting a load of dishes through the dishwasher—a task I have accomplished with little difficulty in the past.

Unfortunately in the past I had always used special dish washing powder made especially for automatic dishwashers. I say unfortunately, for, if I hadn't been so spoiled by this luxury I might have already learned the perils of not using unspecified washing products in these new fangled machines.

But I hadn't, so when I couldn't find the usual powder I decided it wouldn't hurt to use some Lux liquid soap. I made a big mistake.

I filled up the two compartments in the machine usually reserved for the powder. Closed the door. Turned on the machine. And started dinner.

Just as my hamburger was starting to brown I felt water washing across my feet (I always cook barefooted). I looked down and then over.

Horried! Is the only word to describe my feeling at that percie moment. My machine looked as if it had rabies. "Foamy bubbles were pouring out all over the place. I must have mopped half a bucket of water up off that kitchen floor.

It took three complete cycles of the machine before the foam went away. One good thing about it, though—sure had some awful clean dishes.

Didn't do to badly in Tallahassee either. Before I just told you we had won three awards. Well, that's wrong, we won four.

They sneaked in a third place general award. I don't know where it was in typography, an honorable mention in depth reporting and another honorable mention be best news picture.

While we won the same number of awards this year as we did last, we didn't win any first places as we did last year. But we moved up a category in circulation. We went to the over 3,000 circulation for judging purposes and that puts you in a whole nother category.

You're really up against some heavyweights when you get over 3,000. The most important part of the contest, though, even more important than winning awards—is looking at the other award winning entries and seeing what they are doing better than you.

The judges comments are also helpful. And as we made some changes last year after contest, so make some changes this year. Some of them are very evident, other are not except for the most practiced eye.

We feel the contest makes us a better newspaper. We hope you feel the same.

Now-as for Dean Jones having even the slightest chance of beating me in Friday night's contest—forget it. I have a football strategy game at home and I am the unbeaten champion of the neighborhood. I have whipped Jones many times at this game. And I am sure my troops will easily defeat their opponents.

Help! Who wants some kittens. You just can't trust anybody these days.

Our mamma cat expided six weeks ago and when the little creatures were so tiny and cute we had given up all promise. Now that it's almost time for them to leave the nest several people have already gotten another cat or decided against their first impulsive gesture.

So! Anybody out there want instant kitten contact me here at The Herald. They are ready to leave. And even if they aren't I'm ready for them to leave!!!

Noo Way, Glenn, Noo Way

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Hoo, Boy! Looks like this is one time Glenn and I both are going to have to put up or shut up.

Maybe you haven't noticed but the two of us have shown some slight partiality to football in our columns and Al Werneke came in last week and told us to put our money where our mouths are.

We're going to be the honorary coaches for the Second Annual Maroon and Gold Spring Football Scrimmage at Glades Central High School Friday night.

Al has already awarded me the Maroon Machine, and I'm serving notice right now. There's no way the Gold can win.

Noo way! And that's without even taking a look at the Raider playbook, knowing who the coaches are or even who the players are.

I got confidence. I'm not talking about confidence in my particular play. (Back in the sandlot version I played the play I remember most was "Everybody go out for a pass.")

Nope. The Maroon Machine is going to win on strategy.

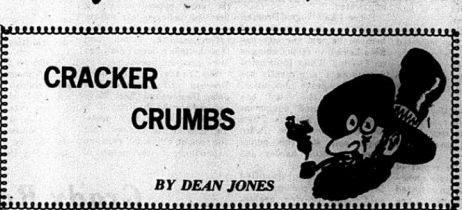

I figure that in the position of head coach and that puts me in charge of strategy while the assistant coaches are in charge of tactics.

Strategy, that's where I decide we'll cross the goal line more times during the scrimmage than the Gold players are.

Tactics...that's where my assistant coaches figure out how we're gonna do it.

All right, staff, you've got your strategy. Friday night, I'll see if your tactics are okay. If the tactics are good, there's no way we can lose this one.

Especially not against Gabby

Glenn's Gold.

In case anybody should ask, the Republican Party is alive and well in the Glades...that is if the appreciation barbecue held Sunday for Sheriff Bill Heidtman was any gauge.

Bob Pesse, the president of the Glades Republican Club, was pretty nervous as 4 p.m. rolled around and there were still several things to be ironed out but by the end of the barbecue, he was happy as a pig in a pole-bean patch.

It took some work but Bob, or somebody, managed to get quite a few big guns from the party faithful to put in appearances...and a sympathetic crowd to cheer every time someone mentioned ousting the Democrats.

Of course, the big attraction of the day was U. S. Sen. Ed. Gurney, all smiles after being acquitted from an indictment in Tallahassee Friday.

Gurney, who later presented Heidtman with a plaque for the sheriff's "outstanding service to western Palm Beach County" rolled into the marina in J. Ray Hatten's camper.

Several of the people I talked to got a chuckle out of the way Gurney kept the television crews at the marina waiting while barbecue dinners and a few of the party edibles were admitted into J. Ray's sanctum sanctorum.

Matter of fact, I got a chuckle out of the number of newscasters from the coast who turned on for the feed. Couldn't help wondering how many would have showed up if the U. S. Senator who'd just been beaten an indictment hadn't been there.

Probably never know the answer but was also wondering how much of a bearing Gurney's clean bill of health had to do with some of the coastal politicians being on the scene.

One of these, who probably got around to shaking more hands than Gurney and Heidtman combined, was Jerry Thomas. Like Glenn pointed out last week though, the Glades always have been friendly toward Gurney and Heidtman and Jerry falls right into that category.

He can probably look for quite a bit of local support in September, October and November when he's making his bid against Reubin Askew in the gubernatorial race.

Speaking of politicians, I couldn't help noting there were more local ones from Pahokee than from Belle Glade. As a matter of fact, Bill Bailey, sporting a large "Straight Out Bailey" t-shirt button, was the elected official from Belle Glade or South Bay.

Not being an expert, I'm not going to try to decide whether that means anything or not.

I will say this, though. The more than 700 people who showed up for a feed weren't disappointed.

I overheard Claude Tindall tell someone he and Charles Goodlett and their cooking crew cooked 800 pounds of spare ribs and it was gone before the crowd was.

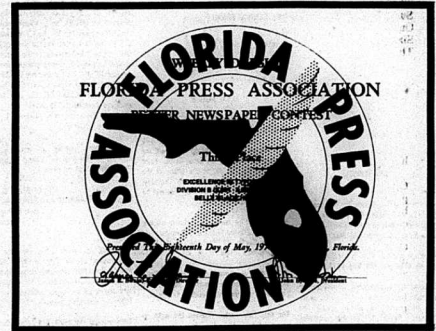

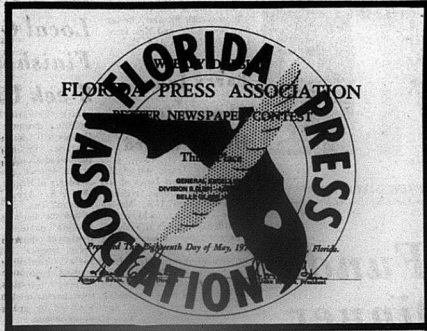

I don't know how many chickens were put on the fire or how many ears of corn were gnawed but those people put away some chow.

Well, it's graduation time again and all the local schools are almost ready to shove a whole raft of seniors into the cold, hard world.

Funny thing about that shoving, though...I don't think you'll ever see a more willing bunch of shoves than a graduating class about the time they get that diploma.

In case I forget later, congratulations to all those about to make the grade and I promise one thing. No sermons.

WE ARE NUMBER 3--WE TRY HARDER

We're real proud of ourselves here at The Belle Glade Herald.

This week your community newspaper won four statewide awards in the Florida Newspaper Association's Better Newspaper Contest. It was the second year in a row we have won this many awards despite the fact we were judged in a much tougher category this year.

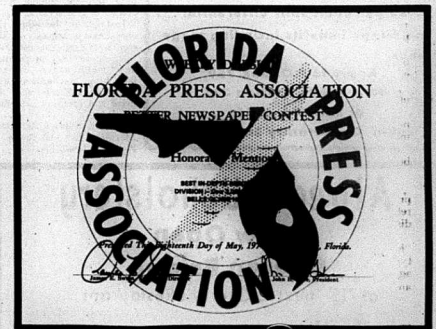

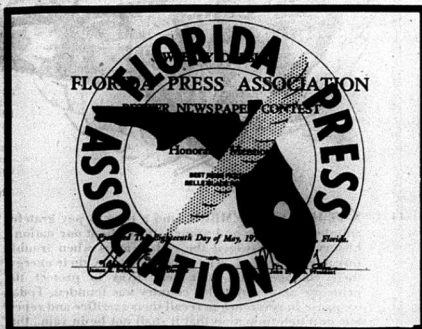

We took third place in general excellence for paper's with a circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000. Last year we finished second in this category for papers with 2,000 to 3,000 circulation.

This year we also took a third place in typography—a category we didn't come close to finishing in last year. Our other two awards were honorable mentions for in depth reporting (State Rd. 80) and news photograph (mosquito plane crashed into a canal). The judges comments were highly favorable on the two honorable mentions, but they said these were two of the toughest categories to win in because of the abundance of excellent entries in each.

Last year was the first time in over a decade that The Belle Glade Herald had even entered any contests, let alone won anything. So we feel we have made progress.

And just as we came back and made some changes after contest last year, so we will this year. Changes for the better—we feel. Changes that will help us serve you better.

And after all—that's what a community newspaper is all about.

Three Enlist Under Army's Buddy Plan

SGT. BILLY WALLACE WATCHES AS MAJ. PORTER GIVES OATH ...to recruits Joseph Chappelle, Carlton Butler and Chester Day for U.S. Army.

Grady Gets Funds At Detroit Dinner

Grady said the responses he has had in his out-of-state appearances indicates not only the emerging political clout of Florida as a state but the national interest the American Party has in his campaign.

He said he has been extremely busy during the campaign but, "More counties than not, I haven't even been into yet. There's a lot of work to be done, up a state organization."

He said his in-state campaigning has necessarily been limited to the larger cities such as Pinellas, Hillsborough, Orange and Duval, but a remark at the Michigan rally indicates a lot of out-of-state support.

"John Grady is the candidate and the man we can rally behind in '74," banquet chairman Mrs. Jo Chapman, American Party Chairman for Wayne County, Michigan, said.

Mrs. Chapman is a member of the party national executive committee, was state chairman of the George Wallace 1972 campaign and was vice-chairman of the Michigan delegation to the National Democratic Convention in Miami.

Mrs. Chapman and several other Michigan party leaders said Grady's campaign is the key political race in the United States this year, describing Florida as, "a conservative state with an outstanding and electable American Party candidate."

"If we give him the proper support and financial backing," Mrs. Chapman said, "we can send him to the U.S. Senate in November."

Grady said he has been making his appearances on weekends and after office hours and still retains a full patient load at his clinic and in Glades General Hospital.

He said, however, he has interviewed more than 30 physicians in an attempt to add to his staff and alleviate his work load.

"I anticipate bringing in at least one more physician," Grady said.

A Belle Glade man who was inducted into the U.S. Army recently received his first promotion moments after being sworn in.

Carlton Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Butler of 655 S.W. Ave. C, was promoted to Private E2 immediately after enlisting into the Army as a reward for recruiting two of his friends who were inducted the same day.

Taking the oath with Butler were Joseph Chappelle Jr., son of Mrs. Louise Chappelle of 514 S.W. Seventh St. and Chester Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Day of 747 S.W. Ave. E.

Army Recruiting Sgt. Billy Wallace said the trio enlisted April 30 under the Army's buddy plan and went to basic training together.

Other Glades area men enlisting in the Army during the month of April were Cyril G. Harper, son of Maybell Harper of Lake Harbor; Jimmy L. Anderson, son of Mrs. Sue Anderson of 292 S.W. Ave. E. and Ham Bryant Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ham Bryant of 760 Waddell Way in Pahokee.

Local Girl Finishes 8 Week Unit

WAC Private Dorothy J. Rollins, daughter of Mrs. Quincey (SIC) Rollins, 637 S.W. St., in Belle Glade, completed an eight-week basic health science course at the U.S. Army, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

Students learn to perform routine patient care and treatment during combat for the color guard of after graduation exercises and in series, clinics and other after a stay at home for 10 days, were he is now studying transportation of sick and wounded by ground, air and computer analysis.

A TIME TO REMEMBER...and a time to pay grateful tribute to the men and women, throughout our nation's history, who answered the call to arms when trouble threatened the land...who gave their time, their energy, their courage, and their very lives to protect the principle upon which this country was founded. Today we pause in reverence to recall their sacrifice and renew our own determination that it shall not be in vain...that our American way of life shall grow and flourish for us and for generations to come. It's time to remember, to count our blessings, to cherish our sacred heritage, and put it to productive use.

PATRICIA DAVIS OF GCHS IS JUNIOR POET
...for writing "What'll Happen When I'm Gone".

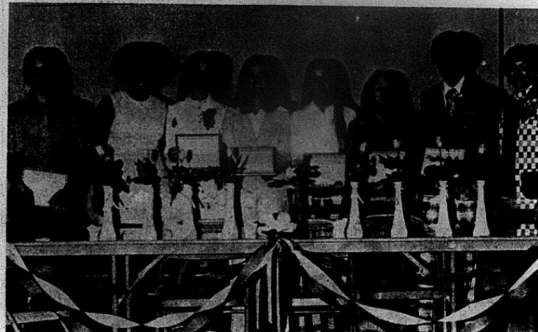

What'll Happen When I'm Gone

By Patricia Davis

The time will come, but the Lord knows best.
To leave this world and take that rest.
All my time and love that was shown
Lord! What'll happen when I'm gone?

Will there be an angel to blow a horn?
Will I be awoken early in the morn?
Will the food I eat be honey and milk?
Will my shoes be gold and gown make of silk?
I'll miss my family; my friends will wean.
Lord! What'll happen when I'm gone?

Which road will I take?
Will the path be right?
Will I run into that snake that changed Eve during the night?
My body will vanish.
I won't have a bone.
Lord! What'll happen when I'm gone?

POETRY WINNERS ARE JORGE SANCHEZ, LINDA EDWARDS, ANNE
...Wilkinson, Charleen Harris, Nancy Guzman, Linda Moon and Ledio Powell.

A 15-year old Glades Central High School student was rewarded a $25 U. S. Savings Bond last week as she won the Junior Woman's Club of Belle Glade annual poetry contest. Patricia Davis won the competition for writing, "What'll Happen When I'm Gone". She and several other students from all three Belle Glade high schools were presented awards May 14 at the civic center.

Jorge Sanchez, 16, of Glades Central, picked up the $10 cash second place award for writing "Mid-day Scene" and an honorable mention for "Untitled".

The $5 cash third place award was won by Nancy Guzman, 15, of Glades Day School for an entry entitled, "There's a Time."

Honorable mention awards were also presented to Ledio Powell, 17, of GCHS for "The Photographer," to Linda Moon,

17, of GCHS for "Childhood Memories," to Linda Edwards, 16, of GCHS for "Why Am I Hated," to Anne Wilkinson, 15, of Glades Day School for "Starry Night" and to Charleen Harris, 14, of Christian Day School for writing, "The Beginning."

At the same meeting, the Juniors initiated several new members, including Carolyn Conger, Rachel McElhenry, Sallie Watson, Pennie Hughes, Nancy Shackelford and Shari Lohmann.

Are You Half Insured

Did you know that more than 55 per cent of all single family homes in the U.S. do not have sufficient insurance coverage? In fact, the average insurance on all homes today is only 70.8 per cent of replacement cost.

Why? The major reason is that insured values are not changed to reflect the skyrocketing cost of replacing homes today. If your house cost $20,000 ten years ago, it may cost you $30,000 to replace it today. Another common reason is the failure to obtain added coverage for additions and improvements.

Insurance policies should not be treated like the Dead Sea Scrolls. Don't lock them up and forget them. It's wise to review them every couple of years. Indifference can cost you money running into the thousands of dollars. If you're not sure about your own insurance coverage, call us today. Don't be half insured.

Vows Taken

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio DeJesus announced the marriage of their daughter, Mary Linda Rodriguez, to Guadalupe Garcia of Rio Grande, Tex. Saturday at St. Philip benini Catholic Church of Belle Glade. A reception followed the ceremony, being held at the Belle Glade Civic Center.

Couple Announces Final Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert C. Swain of 725 S. E. First Street in Belle Glade announce final plans for the wedding of their daughter, Tina Gay, to Ronald Frederick Lottas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Lottas, Sr. of 124 South East 5th Street North.

The marriage will take place in the Community United Methodist Church on Friday, May 24th at 4 p.m. The reception will take place immediately following the ceremony in the church parlor. The Rev. Randall Persons will officiate the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. James M. (Denise) Williams will serve as sister of the bride and Mr. Raymond Lottas will serve as his brother's Best man. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Raymond (Sharon) Lottas and Miss Melodie Ann Pascock. Ushers will be Bryan Francis Cross and Sgt. James M. Williams. All friends of the couple are invited to attend.

Wedding Held

Mrs. Betty J. Duncan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Mock of Belle Glade, and Robert J. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stewart of Cashiers, N.C., announced this week final wedding plans.

The couple will be married at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Duncan's daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Upchurch at 625 N. W. Ave. F. All friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

CDS Holds Banquet

The Christian Day School junior class held their Junior Senior Banquet Friday night at the Belle Glade Civic Center, honoring their fellow student in bidding them farewell.

The theme was "Yesterday, today and tomorrow," and the center was decorated to carry out the theme.

Songs and a program of "This Was Your Life" were performed to remind the seniors of their school days. Guest speakers were Walter C. Treadway, Harry Davis and Ray Stedheim.

Mrs. Evans Hosts Dinner

Mrs. Jane Evans was hostess to Xi Zeta Mu Chapter, for a steak cook-out, May 4 at 8 p.m. Baked potatoes, tossed salad, relish, dish, garlic bread and pineapple sheet cake completed the menu.

Members attending the casual event were: Mr. and Mrs. James Jack, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Lee III, Mr. and Mrs. P.A. Kirehman; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gascho; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bair; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Corbin; Mrs. Frank Cochran and Mrs. Jane Evans.

Workshop to be Held

A program on "Consumer Information: Clothing" will be presented at 10 a.m. May 30 at the Mounts Building in West Palm Beach by the Cooperative Extension Service according to Palm Beach County Home Economics Agent Arlen C. Jones.

The workshop will cover new products on the market place and alteration tricks to assist the home seamstress. Mrs. Jones said women attending the session will be able to learn new techniques in sewing and get to know the latest products. The instructor will be Estelene, Home Economics Agent Josephine Lee.

Talent Searched

The Afro-Arts Festival Committee is now conducting a talent search for members of the black communities to participate in the Afro-Arts Festival to be held Saturday, June 29 from 10 a.m. until midnight at Gaines Park, Australian Avenue, West Palm Beach.

Auditions are being held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, 7 p.m. at Westward Elementary School, 1101 Golf Avenue, West Palm Beach for black artists, singers and musicians (jazz/blues, gospel and African music), black models, creative dancers, and persons with black art and African artifacts.

The Festival, planned as a "family day" for everyone in the area, will have entertainment and interesting exhibits for children and adults. There is no charge for admission and many items on display will be for sale.

The Afro-Arts Festival is sponsored by the Urban League of Palm Beach County and Payne Chapel A.M.E. Church. The Festival will be financed in part through donations from the public and contributions may be sent to: AFRO-ARTS COMMITTEE: 517-1/2 11th Street 86, West Palm Beach, Florida.

Junior Women Initiate Five

Local Residents Graduate

Fourteen Belle Glade residents helped swell the number of Winter Term graduates at Palm Beach Junior College to 493, the largest graduation class in the college's history. There were a total of 29

Glades area residents included in the commencement ceremony earning either the associate of arts or associate of science degrees. Belle Glade graduates were Scott Charles Berryhill, Charles Lee Butts Jr., Ella Mae Davis, Emilio Raul Echave, David Lee Gooden, Alma Ruth Henry, Ella Mae Liles, Timothy Bruce McKee, Nancy Jane Hargett Miller, George Luis Molina, Hiawatha Plair

Jr. Reuben Kenneth Resmond do Jr., Geraldine Smith and Oscar Enrique Sotolongo. South Bay graduates were Thomas Alphonse Williams Jr. and James Ralph Woodham. Clewiston Graduates were Margaret Joy Crawford, Nancy Lee Davis, Priscilla Anne Dunson, Guillermina Margaret Martin and Stephen Harris Sexton.

Phokee residents graduating from PBJC were Margaret Roxanne Caldwell, John Rory Collier, Marie Gabaldon Langston, Ralph Hooke McCotter Jr., Regina Paulette Mills and Claudine Leigh Shirley. Mary F. Hinz of Canal Point was another Glades area graduate.

Best Buy Shoplifter Convicted

James Walter White of South Bay was convicted in city court Tuesday of a shoplifting offense which occurred May 1 at Best Buy Drugs in Glades Plaza.

White was convicted of stealing $13 worth of prescriptions from the local chain discount store.

"We will continue to prosecute anyone we find taking goods from our store without paying for them," said Buck Story, store manager. "Best Buy would particularly like to thank the Belle Glade Police Department for its quick action in helping us catch White with the stolen goods in his car."

White was fined $150 or 30 days plus court costs.

DURALITE

That Famous Paint

FOR MASONRY

Seals, protects and gives beautiful color to all masonry surfaces, such as brick, cement block, stucco and asbestos siding. DURALITE ACRYLIC HOUSE PAINT produces a "breathing" type film which allows moisture within the substrate to escape in the form of vapor while protecting the surface from water from the outside.

... AND WOOD

DURALITE ACRYLIC HOUSE PAINT flows on so easily to provide a blister-resistant low sheen finish for all wood siding, trim, shakes and paneling. It dries within an hour, greatly reducing the chances of dust or insects sticking to the surface. Whites stay white, colors stay bright, your home stays beautiful year after year.

Also available in WHITE A3-161-00 and BLACK A3-161-01

210 Seniors To Graduate

GCHS Seniors Ready

In recognition of the seniors, this entire week at Glades Central High School is devoted Senior Class Week, with something planned for each day.

The week began Monday with Kiddy Day as many of the seniors tried to duplicate the way they were dressed their first day of school 12 long years ago.

Tuesday was Colors Day as seniors wore the school's Maroon and Gold Colors and Wednesday was Twin Day, with seniors pairing off in similar dress.

Today is Tag Day with seniors identifying themselves by wearing tags and Friday is Fun Day as seniors practice for baccalaureate services in the morning and the Spring Football Scrimmage Game is held that night.

Monday is a holiday for students and next Wednesday will feature the Spring Sports Banquet. The seniors will get another rehearsal, with the band this time, Thursday and May 31 is the night of the prom at Flager Museum.

For the third consecutive year, graduating seniors will be the guests of Walt Disney World June 1 during the tourist attraction's annual senior night.

Graduation Week begins June 2 with Baccalaureate Services being held at 4 p.m. in the school gymnasium. The Rev. Charles Robinson, pastor of Zion A.M.E. Church will be the featured speaker.

Final exams will begin Monday, June 3 and the Raider Band will hold its annual picnic at 5:30 that afternoon.

Thursday, June 6 will be the last day of classes for students. Graduation Exercises will be held at Memorial Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 7, following a hand concert beginning at 7 p.m.

West Area Supervisor of Education James Maynor will present the diplomas to the graduating seniors.

The audience will be welcomed by 1974 Salutatorian, Carolyn Ford. Student Council President Ibrahim Alava will present senior reflections and Class Valedictorian Joan E. Doster will give the farewell.

Miss Doster is outgoing president of the Glades Central chapter of the National Honor Society and secretary of the Glades Central Student Council.

Miss Ford is president of the 1974 Senior Class, is the reigning Miss Glades Central for the 1973-74 school year and is a member of the Glades Central Chapter of the National Honor Society. Graduating with high honors, earning between a 3.5 and 4.0 grade point average, are John Ashley, Gary Bowermeister, Linda Jones, Linda Moon and Ledlo Powell.

Rounding out the top ten graduating seniors, academically are Georgina Bueno, Lethenia Joyce Meadows and Mamie Washington, earning between a 3.0 and 3.49 grade point average.

Also graduating with achievement are Ibrahim Alava, Robert Alvarez, David Branon, Larry Brown, Nelson Cabrera, Robert Harper, Debra Hedrick, Sheila Johnson, Donald Mann and Bernita McChendon.

Other high achievers are Glenda Nelson, Patricia Summers, Lizzie Woods and Teresa Zawadski.

Among the final school meetings this year, but which took place last week, were the Lears and Earn students' field trip and the induction of new members of the National Honor Society, which also installed new officers for the coming year.

The four new members inducted last Thursday were Lena Myrick, Cindy Smith, Sharon Burden and Sara Manning.

New officers are Linda Zawadski, the new president; Robert Welch, secretary-treasurer; Sandra Jerinagan, parliamentarian and Artis Ford, vice-president.

Glades Day Graduates Monday

The first class of seniors to spend their full senior year in Belle Glade will be graduated from Glades Day School Monday.

Mrs. Miriam Burgess, Glades Day headmistress, said graduation ceremonies will take place at 8 p.m. in McWhorter Hall for the 28 seniors in the 1974 class.

The school has already held its baccalaureate services, conducted by the Rev. Randall Parsons at Community United Methodist Church.

As usual, Mrs. Burgess said the only speakers will be the class valedictorian and the salutatorian, Ceila Echave and Rosie Garcia.

The other three honor students in the class gave talks at the school's class night, held May 9 at the school. They were with Struggles, Tony Alvarez and Mark Frank.

It was also during the class night festivities that Kathy Ballard received the Louise R. Rhodes scholarship from the Rhodex scholarship of Club of Belle Glade.

Receiving Florida Regents Certificates were David Brough, Gary VanLandingham, Jeff Harris, Mike Douglas and Charles Hall.

Tony Alvarez received the English Award, David Brough received the Science Award, Mike Douglas received the Math Award, Linda Baker received the Science Award and Debbie Mae received the Yearbook Award.

Providing a fitting end to the school year, Mrs. Burgess said the school was this week re-accredited by the Florida Council of Independent Schools and she was re-elected to the council's board of directors.

Mrs. Burgess was first named to the board last year to fill out an unexpired term. She was named this week to fill a complete two-year term.

Poster Winner Named

By Donna Ruth, Librarian

The winner of the National Library Week poster contest sponsored by the Belle Glade Municipal Library was Steve Collinsworth. His slogan was "Up, up, and away with National Library Week."

As a prize Steve received a book on hot-rod racing. Congratulations, Steve!

We would like to welcome Miss Almata Jackson to our staff. Miss Jackson will be the library's page for the summer. She is a native of Belle Glade and is attending the junior college here. Welcome, Almata.

The students of Gove Elementary School have an art show this month in the public library.

On Saturday, May 25, there will be children's movie time at the public library.

Admission is free and children of all ages are welcome.

Republicans Meet To Eat And Speak

Glades Republicans turned out in droves Saturday to hear their leaders speak on a variety of issues during an Appreciation Barbeque held in honor of Sheriff William Heidman. One of the big guns who came to the Aubrey Farmer Pavilion for the occasion was U.S. Sen Ed Gurney. One boy who wasn't particularly impressed by Gurney and his talk to newsmen when he appeared on his mind. While Gurney was talking to the reporters, the future All-American was upstaging him. Politicking was the order of the day and gubernatorial candidate Jerry Thomas and Sheriff Heidman and their wives (below) were right at home.

Lewis Interns David Goodlett

David Goodlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Goodlett of 1824 West Canal St. S., recently spent a week in Tallahassee as an intern for State Representative Tom Lewis.

Goodlett was accompanied on the trip by Alya Nagler of Pahokee. Goodlett is a senior at Glades Day School and Miss Nagler is a student at Pahokee High School.

"I began the Legislative Intern Program last year,"

Lewis said, "as a continuation of the program I had when I was mayor of North Palm Beach."

"It is my firm belief that our young people must be given every opportunity to learn about their government," he said. "What they see on TV or read in the newspapers is not enough. They need to be active participants."

Each student in the program meets with the Clerk of the House of Representatives and the Sergeant at Arms, besides having the opportunity to observe both the Senate and House in session and attend various committee meetings.

"Many things go on through-out this body of government," Goodlett said, "just as you might think but the things that differ are the ones that will attract your attention."

Goodlett was sponsored by the Glades Republican Club. "What amazes me most," Lewis said, "is that after the initial excitement wears off, the students immediately grasp the importance of what is happening—it usually takes less than one day.

"They approach each bill, each issue, each topic," he said, "with seriousness and concern, as if they, themselves, were the legislators."

There were a wedding couple, a pair of twins dressed in Castilian costumes, a pair of South Sea Islanders were among the principal actors included in the cast.

Uncle Sam was also to be portrayed, as were a Spanish Flamenco dancer and her bongos drummers, two antebellum Southern belles and a few other types of costumes.

The graduation will come in the middle of the Wee Care fund raising effort, in which Mrs. R.V. Allison, chairman of the Wee Care board of directors, says more than $18,000 has been donated or pledged.

Mrs. Allison said $5,335 has already been donated and the rest is pledged by Everglades Federal, which has pledged $1,000; $2,000 by U.S. Sugar Corp.; $5,000 by Quaker Oats and $5,000 by the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida, Inc.

She said the center is aiming for $26,000 in local contributions to make up the 1974-75 budget of $113,000. The rest of the money to operate the center will come from fees paid by some of the children's parents and the state and federal governments.

Wee Care Graduates With Festivities

Graduation exercises for the Wee Care Center featured the theme, "Children Around the World," as the four and five year olds graduated amid festivities Wednesday evening.

Wee Care Director William Grear said the program was to have included skits involving a fashion show, a wedding and a presentation by the center's two and three year old children.

Children dressed in native costumes representing various countries sang, danced and portrayed customs of those countries.

National Honor Society Meets

inductees, President Linda Zawadski, Outgoing President Joan Doster, Secretary-Treasurer Robert Welch, Parliamentarian Sandra Jerinagan, Inductees Sharon Burden and Sam Manning and Vice-President Artis Ford.

Karen's Korner

By Karen
Hansford

It's that time of year again when all the men and women softball players are settling down to grueling practices, getting ready for the opening of the softball season.

Almost everyone has gotten over the sore muscles they get as they came out for the first few workouts and are now trying to decide who plays what position this year.

Our team is no exception, of course, for the past four years they've been trying to figure out where to put me.

I've been placed at catcher, shortfield, centerfield, first base and even hidden out in right field where I can spend my time swatting mosquitoes, staying clear of ant beds, and once in a while, backing up the other players in case someone misses the ball.

Oh yeah, sometimes a ball is hit into right field but I'm sure some other players will agree with me when I excuse myself for missing it because I was so surprised to even see a ball I forgot to try to catch it.

Right field does have an advantage though. At least the player can observe how the others are doing and either try to learn from them or tell them their mistakes.

This year I might just try something different, such as pitching. Don't laugh, I might just surprise everybody, including myself. But I thought, "why not, I've tried just about everything else."

Of course, when I get up there on the mound I could think of a couple of reasons as to why not. Mainly, the batter looks closer, and if that ball is hit hard and straight back to you, you better be prepared. Otherwise, you may be out for the rest of the game. I've seen it happen.

Just the other day, I was watching an Atlanta Braves-Los Angeles Dodgers game on television and the Braves' pitcher got knocked squarely in the groin—just a little lower and he would really have had it.

That kind of thing scares you when you're up on the mound and facing the batter. But I've sort of gotten used to the balls coming straight back at me. I don't even close my eyes anymore when I duck.

Don't you ladies think you got our team whipped yet though, cuz I'm not the only one who'll be pitching. In fact, after my first game as a pitcher, I might retire if I find I'm not cut out to be one.

I may just go back to right field.

Heigh Ho, and it's to the beach we go!

I bet there's a lot more of you around here who are making plans to be off for Memorial Day weekend.

Our family is retreating to our favorite spot, Ft. Myers Beach. I imagine we'll be seeing some of you over there. Seems like everytime we have a holiday, half the people in Belle Glade have the same idea in mind.

Hope to see some of you over there. Have a good time and be careful.

On this page you'll find an article about the limits on fish in Palm Beach County.

Last week we ran a story which it was reported that the limits were pulled off the lake fish and due to a late news release you read the wrong information.

Seems like the first release forgot to mention that this didn't apply to most parts of Palm Beach County except for that portion of conservation area to which extends into Palm Beach County.

So here is their retraction-word for word.

Greg Klanjac was named the Outstanding Athlete of the Year and Most Valuable Player for the Gator football team Friday night during the fourth Annual Glades Day-School Athletic Banquet.

The banquet featured Ken Johnson, a coach at Palm Beach Atlantic College, as the main speaker. Johnson is a former major league baseball player who played in the World Series several years ago with the Cincinnati Reds.

Director Tom King presented Klanjac the Outstanding Athlete of the Year Award and head football coach Dave Magnuson presented the football award.

Other awards included the Most Valuable Players for golf, Jeff Royal; tennis, Charles Royal; baseball, Petie Rodri; and basketball, which went to Charles Hall.

King had high praise for the basketball team, which won the District 7 Class A Championship, going all the way to the Regional playoff, where the Gators were beaten, 8-1, by Loyola of Miami, which went on to win the state championship Saturday.

The 1973-74 Gators broke even in only one sport, golf, while posting winning seasons in every other sport.

The junior varsity football team racked up the best record, going unbeaten with a 4-0 season. Varsity football Gators had a 4-3 season in their first time out as a sanctioned team.

In basketball, the Gators went 14-8, in baseball, 16-9, in golf, 4-4 and tennis, 8-4.

King said the Gators will take part in a varsity football spring jamboree in Naples Friday night at 8 p.m., playing Lely, Charleston and one other team whose name he didn't know as yet.

Newspapermen to Be Coaches

Raiders Spring Game Friday

A preview of the 1974 Glades Central Raiders football team will be given at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the annual Insurance Game at Memorial Stadium.

Both coaches predict victory for their squad in this game designed to raise funds for insuring the players for next year. Admission to the struggle will be one dollar at the gate.

Helping the Gold team will be coaches William Denny and Dave Campbell while Johnny Davis and Jay Seider will help the Maroon team.

Werneke said he hoped no special plays will be sent in from the White House.

Heading the Maroon team will be quarterback Johnnie Rutledge and David Philpott. The center will be Dicky Sweet and the guards are Milton Hayden, David Kinklaw and James Epping. Antoine Russell, Clark Lloyd and David Jones will be providing the muscle at tackle while the ends will be Charles Small and Michael Pringle.

Rounding out the backfield will be Alexander Brown, Howard Moses, Norman Walker, Anthony Burger and Kevin Singleton.

The Gold team will counter with veteran quarterback Rigo Ruiz and halfbacks Norman Smith, Eli Martin, Willie Clark and Willie Terry.

The Gold line will be Bernard Hammond and Cornelius Brown in the two ends, Davey Locke, Juan Raza and Earnest Jackson holding down the tackle positions, guards Lester Finney, Charles Ford and Timothy Gasty and Allen Ives will be kicking the ball at center.

Defensive specialists for the Gold team will be Calvin Willis, Willie Wright, Hector Velez and Charles Anderson while the Maroon defensive specialists will be Michael Washington, Patrick Collie, Jazell Simmon and Hudall Collie.

The varsity squads will play three quarters of a variety game and Coach Willie McDonald's junior varsity will play one 20-minute quarter with the offense varying the defense.

Coach McDonald will coach the offense with help from Gram Frost while the defense will be coached by Filey Foster, Jr.

Spirit has been high during the two weeks of spring workouts and the coaches feel quite a bit has been accomplished during the first two weeks.

After the spring game, the Raiders will work out three more days getting their defensive personnel ready for the fall season.

The Raiders will work on the tough double wing attack used by their first opponent, Atlantic High School of Delray Beach.

Come out and see the great strategy by the two honorary coaches. Game time will be 7:30 p.m.

Game Laws Violated

Speckled perch and rabbits may both be in season year round in Florida, but five Broward County men and one Pahokee resident ended up in jail charged with several game law violations after a total of 511 rabbits and 102 speckled perch were discovered by wildlife officers, according to Captain O.G. Kelly, regional law enforcement supervisor for the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission of Delray Beach.

The mass arrest began when Wildlife Officers Jim Brantley and Glen Lee stopped a truck on State Road 27 in Palm Beach County and found more than 100 each of rabbits and speckled perch in the truck.

Assorted charges of illegal possession, buying and transporting game and fish were lodged against James Hams, Lonnie Reese, Lasby Phillips and Lodie Baker of Opa Locka, and Joe Brown of Pompano Beach.

From information obtained during interrogation of the five original suspects, a search warrant was issued and Derby Brown of Pahokee was added to the roundup after another 402 rabbits were found in his Pahokee home, and he was charged with possession of game animals for sale.

Raiders Make All-Conference

Three Glades Central baseball Raiders were named to the Suncoast All-Conference team this week according to coach Riley Foster Jr. Winning places on the honor team were catcher Oscar Rodriguez (left), Left Fielder Kenneth Foster Jr. and first baseman Jerry Vulgamore Jr. Coach Foster is in the foreground. All three of the players (Kenneth is Foster's younger brother) had seasonal batting averages higher than .300.

Specs Are Bitin'

A touch of cool weather was apparently the trigger for a renewed burst of activity on the part of the famous Lake Okeechobee speckled perch (also known as the black crappie), delighting anglers with limit catches daily, according to Everglades regional fisheries biologist Dr. Dwight Gelfert of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Fish camp and marina operators surrounding the lake advise fishermen the supply of prime "speck" bait, the Missouri minnow, is plentiful, and when fished under a light bobber, live to eight feet down, continues to produce fish in large quantities.

Artificial lures such as the Beetle Spin and small yellow or white jigs also add their share to the stringers, especially when fished slowly near shoreline vegetation. With a partner to slowly rock or scull along a shoreline, an angler can take his 50-per-day limit without maximum expenditure of effort.

Out-of-state fishermen, with nonresident licenses safely tucked in their wallets, and purses, are having a field day taking the scrappy gamesters, while native Floridians accept the run as an annual rite. Either way, the specs are running and the fishing is great in and around Lake Okeechobee.

Mistake Corrected

An emergency order from the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission has removed the bag limit on fresh water fish in Delray Beach, Collier and Monroe Counties, and that portion of conservation area two which extends into Palm Beach County.

A recent news release advised erroneously of a lifting of bag limits in Palm Beach County, which is not affected by the order.

The bag limits in Palm Beach County remain at ten per day for largemouth Florida Bass, and fifty per day for bluegills, shelleaters and other panfish.

A 150 pound maximum poundage limit, and the exception of speckled perch from the bag limit suspension is in effect to aid in the control of illegal sales of gamefish on the commercial market.

The emergency order placed in effect to permit fishermen to harvest fish which are otherwise likely to die as a result of decreased oxygen levels in the lower waters.

Gotcha!!

Optometrist Returns

Dr. Donald Fieha, of Belle Glade recently returned from an eight-day educational tour to Switzerland and Germany sponsored by the Southern Council of Optometrists, a 12-state organization headquartered in Atlanta. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fieha.

The tour included a series of educational seminars in Zurich and Munich, the program in the former city, sponsored by the Swiss Optometric Association, included lectures on "Optometry in Switzerland" and "Visual Problems in Rifle Shooting".

The visit to Munich featured a field trip to the optometric college which included a tour of the academic, laboratory and clinical facilities as well as a lecture on "Quality of Contact Lenses". The other portion of the tour educational program included the lectures, "Examination of the Low Vision Patient", "Management of the Low Vision Patient" and "Amblyopia".

Thank You

My husband and I would like to take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation for all the people in Belle Glade who helped console us in our time of grief at the death of our daughter, Mrs. Jackie Stokes. We deeply appreciate all the flowers, the companionship and all of the other help our friends were to us in our time of need.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Jones and Tommy.

Mrs. Dozier to Speak

Beverly Dozier, Commissioner of Cultural Affairs of Florida will deliver an address at Florida Atlantic University on Tuesday, May 20. Mrs. Dozier has agreed to resign her position so that she can run for Secretary of State and thus become the first female cabinet officer in the history of Florida. The Democrats of Boca Raton will hold a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Dozier at the Sweden House on May 20. Tickets and information are available from Grace Blitt at 391-0916.

'Eternal vigilance is the Price of Liberty'

★★★★ Wendell Phillips 1852 ★★★★★

MEMO

In honor of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, it is our duty to remember the words of Wendell Phillips: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." We must not allow our liberties to be taken away from us without a struggle. We must stand firm and defend our rights. We must not allow ourselves to be divided. We must stand together. We must not allow ourselves to be led astray. We must follow the path of justice. We must not allow ourselves to be divided. We must stand together. We must not allow ourselves to be led astray. We must follow the path of justice.

SUPPORT AMERICA

Our glorious heritage enshrined in the flag of the United States, is as often taken as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all and for all. It is the symbol of our nation. It is the symbol of our freedom. It is the symbol of our unity. It is the symbol of our strength. It is the symbol of our hope. It is the symbol of our future. It is the symbol of our destiny. It is the symbol of our greatness. It is the symbol of our glory. It is the symbol of our honor. It is the symbol of our pride. It is the symbol of our love. It is the symbol of our faith. It is the symbol of our courage. It is the symbol of our sacrifice. It is the symbol of our devotion. It is the symbol of our loyalty. It is the symbol of our patriotism. It is the symbol of our patriotism.

OUR FLAG IS A SYMBOL OF FREEDOM, BUT OF HISTORY. THE HISTORY OF OUR NATION WAS WRITTEN IN BLOOD AND SWEAT. WE MUST NOT ALLOW OURSELVES TO BE DIVIDED. WE MUST STAND TOGETHER. WE MUST NOT ALLOW OURSELVES TO BE LED ASTRAY. WE MUST FOLLOW THE PATH OF JUSTICE. WE MUST NOT ALLOW OURSELVES TO BE DIVIDED. WE MUST STAND TOGETHER. WE MUST NOT ALLOW OURSELVES TO BE LED ASTRAY. WE MUST FOLLOW THE PATH OF JUSTICE.

GLADES CHURCH NEWS

THE HERALD WELCOMES NEWS ITEMS FROM YOUR CHURCH EACH WEEK.
CALL 996-2056 NOT LATER THAN TUESDAY NOON FOR PUBLICATION THURSDAY.

Mrs. Price Honored

Mrs. Katherine Price will be honored in a Special Recognition Service at 4 p.m. Sunday, May 26 at Everglades Presbyterian Church, North Main Street and Ave. K.

The recognition program, sponsored by the Church Session, the church's Board of Elders, will be an act of appreciation and thanksgiving for one of the outstanding women of the Presbyterian Church, U.S., and particularly for her part in the founding and establishing of Everglades Presbyterian Church in Belle Glade.

Guest speaker for the service will be Dr. Ryan L. Wood, of Fort Pierce, who was organizing pastor in 1947. Dr. Wood was pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church, West Palm Beach, when Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Price and five other charter members gathered as a Presbyterian mission in the City Hall of Belle Glade, which resulted in the organizing of Everglades Presbyterian Church in November, 1947.

The Rev. Curry W. Davis, of Coral Gables, who is State Clerk of Everglades Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, U.S., will assist in the recognition ceremonies, as well as the Rev. Leland N. Edmunds, of Coral Springs, a former pastor of the church, now retired.

Ruling Elder David Motes will represent the Church Session in honoring Mrs. Price for her 27 years of service to the local congregation. A biographical sketch will be presented by Mrs. Cecil McClure, Church Historian of Everglades Presbyterian Church. Singing Mrs. Price's favorite hymns, will be guest soloist, Mr. Dan Mathis.

A resident of Belle Glade during four decades, Mrs. Katherine Price is well-known to persons of all races and church denominations, as well as civic and charitable organizations.

Mrs. Price was the recipient of the "Good Samaritan of the Glades" award and plaque from the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce several years ago, in recognition of her work among the migrants for over twenty years.

Mrs. Price was recipient of the "Woman of the Year" award from the Business and Professional Women's Club of Belle Glade. She was honored on the occasion of her 80th birthday. She was also a twenty year member and past president of Chapter A. G. P. E. O. Sisterhood.

Named "Katherine" at birth, in honor of a Presbyterian minister's wife, Mrs. Price has spent a lifetime in Christian service in Presbyterian churches. Her husband, L.L. Price, was a Ruling Elder of the Everglades Presbyterian Church until his death in 1964.

Mrs. Price was twice honored with "Life Membership Pin" in 1960 and 1971 by the Presbyterial Women of the Church of Everglades Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.

Mrs. Price was an organizer of officer of the Hospital Auxiliary of Glades General Hospital, Belle Glade, from which she also received a "Life Membership" and 2000 hour pin for twenty years of service.

But her greatest service to the Glades area, in the opinion of her many friends, has been the operation of the "Clothes Closet" from the basement of her home, where migrants and needy persons of any race or creed have felt free to go for clothing, toys, and household goods.

Because of her extensive efforts in Christian and humanitarian work through the Belle Glade community, representatives of many churches and charitable organizations are expected in the Special Recognition Service this Sunday. The entire community is invited.

Immediately following the recognition Service, a reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall, sponsored by the Women of the Church of Everglades Presbyterian Church.

Revival Begins Sunday

The Rev. C.L. Dixon, of Winter Haven will begin a revival Sunday at the Church of God at 301 S.E. Ave. E in Belle Glade.

Services each evening during the revival will begin at 7:30 p.m. The revival will last through June 5.

Church pastor, the Rev. Roy C. Miller, said Rev. Dixon has a God-appointed ministry to pray for the sick. Rev. Miller said the public is invited to attend the revival services.

Thank You

I would like to thank the nurses on the second floor of Glades General Hospital and Dr. Jorge Pura during the recent stay there of my husband, Charles Newman, who extended him.

Yes, we know, it overpowers the imagination to even dream of everlasting life, to think that your life doesn't end with this life, that there's another life waiting for you.

But look around you. Your world is filled with perennial proof of renewed existence.

For instance, the Sun will vanish tonight, and you know it will reappear in the morning.

For instance, trees drop their leaves in the Fall, and you know they will burst forth with new life come Spring.

For instance, birds fly away when Winter approaches, and return to sweeten the Spring with their songs.

For instance, our democratic ideals die with the prejudices of some people, but are revived and grow strong with the thoughts and actions of most of us.

For instance, rainbows form arcs of triumph over dark clouds and promise fair skies tomorrow.

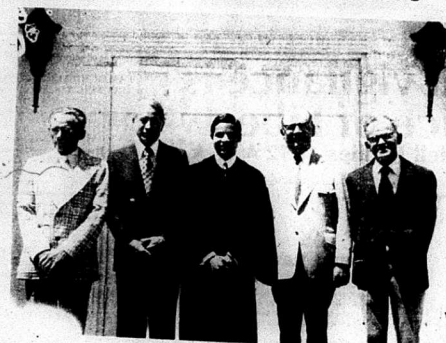

For instance, hope holds your head high and memories keep happy days alive forever.

Finally, the crowning, most convincing proof of all. Your Creator sent His Son to live, to die and to live again to show you the way to eternity.

Yes, you can believe in everlasting life, if you can believe in life itself.

You'll find it easy to believe when you see the light on people's faces at your place of worship this week.

Church Installs Elders

ELDER URBAN FELSING AND ROBERT ROADMAN, REV. ABE ... Pastor and New Deacons Cecil McClure and Charles Critchfield before church.

The newly installed ruling elders at Everglades Presbyterian Church are Urban Felsing and Robert Roadman, the pastor, the Rev. Abe Castor, and the newly installed deacons, Cecil McClure and Charles Critchfield.

The Ruling Elders share in the spiritual oversight of the local congregation, along with the pastor, in the traditional Presbyterian form of government. They join Ruling Elders Joseph McIlwain, David Motes, Robert Wood, and the pastor, Rev. Abe Castor, in composing the Church Session, the governing body of the local church.

The Deacons carry responsibility for the temporal affairs of the church. Mr. Cecil McClure has been appointed Chairman of House and Grounds. Mr. Charles Critchfield was appointed Chairman of Ushering and Service. Dr. Dan Beardsley is Chairman of the Board of Deacons of Everglades Presbyterian Church.

Services Held

Funeral services for Archie Daniel McLeod, who died Thursday at Glades General Hospital, were held Saturday at the Chosen Missionary Baptist Church.

McLeod, who was 50 years of age, was a native of Perry and had made his home at 840 N.E. 27th St. in Belle Glade since 1946. He was a member of the Chosen Missionary Baptist Church.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Ella Connell of Belle Glade; a brother, J.V. McLeod of Belle Glade; and a niece, Miss Debbie McLeod, also of Belle Glade.

The Rev. Simon Martin officiated at the services. Burial was at Port Mayaca Cemetery. Pallbearers were Homer Brooks, Howard Lynn, Henry Martin, Jerry McVey, Joe Revels and David Sullivan. Wehring Funeral Home of Pahokee was in charge of arrangements.

Thank You

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to the many friends and relatives for the flowers they sent and sympathy and kindnesses they extended following the death of our father, Frederick Ray Noland.

The Parson Pontificates

Last week I saw some of the great cathedrals and churches in Europe.

How beautiful and impressive they were! Majestic on the outside, they had ornate and magnificent interiors.

Many of us visited them to enjoy the beauty, to stand in awe of their works of art, or to hear some soul-stirring music. A few people went in to worship.

"How like in our own churches," I thought. Some go to appreciate the anthem, some to "enjoy" the sermon, and others to visit one another. Blessed is the man who goes to church to worship God.

In appreciation of the sponsorship of this page, we would urge all church-going people to patronize the firms listed below

Rainbow Initiates Two

Paula Walker and Mary Moon were among the recent initiates at Order of the Rainbow ceremonies as Belle Glade Assembly number One met.

PATRICIA LEALAND, CHARLES McCURDY AND BARBARA KNIGHT ...are among those to receive awards May 31 at El Dorado Awards Banquet here.

Civic Club to Have Banquet

The El Dorado Civic Club of Belle Glade is sponsoring an Awards of the Year Banquet to meet May 31 at the Holiday Inn.

Persons will be receiving special recognition for their achievements and efforts in serving their community and promoting the welfare of young adults. Entertainment will be offered by the Glades Correctional Institutional Band and tickets will be $6 per person according to chairman Mrs. Evelyn Johnson.

Charles Todd, dean of boys at Glades Central High School, will be the toastmaster for the occasion.

Persons due to receive the awards will be announced at a later time. The public is invited.

Two Initiated

Belle Glade Assembly Number One of the Order of the Rainbow recently initiated two new members as Lori Bettis and Linda Gutter (above) joined the club.

Elite Club Sponsors Trip

Members of the Elite Community Club are sponsoring a trip to the State Association of Girls' Club Convention in Fort Pierce in June for the Chiquita Girls' Club according to Mrs. Dorothy McCurdy.

Mrs. McCurdy, the club's direct sponsor, said the entire club of 16 girls were sent on the trip last year and she and co-sponsor Mrs. Nina M. Singleton are hoping to equal that record this year.

"At the association," Mrs. McCurdy said, "our girls are given a chance to compete with girls from various cities of Florida; in talent show, arts and crafts, sewing, dramatics and oratorical, scholarship contests, as well as recreational and social activities which our girls need so very much."

She said the Elite Club was primarily able to send the girls last year through donations from friends and donations of again being solicited this year.

Mu Upsilon Meets

The May 7 meeting of Mu Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority was held at the home of Mrs. Norma Franklin. The first order of business was to officially induct pledge Ann Kirby into the chapter during a Ritual Of Jewels ceremony. She will be able to attend the ceremony given previously to four other pledges.

Outgoing President Ariha Keene presided over this ceremony and also the installation of officers for the 1974-75 year. The six new officers are President Carol Zump, Vice-President Bonnie Blitch, Treasurer Patsy Varnell, Corresponding Secretary Donna Schoenfeld, Recording Secretary Mary Dexter and Extension Officer Rhonda Stokes. The new officers then took over the meeting and Mrs. Zump announced her new chairmen. They are: Dorinda Shutta, social; Norma Franklin, service; Davene Bailey, yearbook; Ariha Keene, publicity; Patsy Varnell, scrapbook; Marsha Oren, ways and means; Donna Schoenfeld, program; and city council representative and alternate, Ariha Keene and Davene Bailey.

Mrs. Blitch announced she and her committee have already met and have a full outline or rushing events planned to begin this summer. Mu Upsilon expects to pledge several new girls in the fall. The final social event of the 1973-74 year was announced by Marsha Oren. Members and their families are invited to a Mother's Day cookout at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Varnell on Sunday, May 19. It was also announced Mu Upsilon will have good representation at Beta Sigma Phi's annual Florida Convention, held this May in Clearwater Beach. Five girls and three husbands will be able to attend.

Ann Kirby gave the evening's program on health foods. One of her references was a book by Adele Davis, "Let's Eat Right to Keep Fit."

She said one must eat some foods out of each of the four basic food groups each day in order to maintain good health. Mrs. Kirby let the members taste a health cereal which she makes at home. After this appetizer, the hostess served refreshments to the members.

People who live up North know the value of good home insulation. How it keeps the cold out, the warm in and the heating bills down.

But, what many people who live down here don't realize, is that the reverse holds true as well. Good home insulation can help keep the heat out, the cool in and the air conditioning bills down.

Six inches of ceiling insulation alone can make a substantial difference in your electric bill. Enough to cover the cost of the insulation in a season or two. And any local insulation contractor will be happy to tell you how and how much.

Install your home insulation soon. And this summer, the temperature won't be the only thing you keep down.

FPI

Insulation. Believe it or not, you need it as much down here as they do up there.

GAME AND FRESH WATER FISH OFFICER...feeds two Caesarian section fawns born in Lake City

Nothing Unusual About Their Job

LAKE CITY—Personnel of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission are so often called upon to perform tasks associated with the various forms of wildlife that hardly anything is considered unusual. One such recent event, however, caused Wildlife Biologist Frank Smith to at least pause and scratch his head momentarily.

The rather interesting event began to unfold when Smith received a phone call from the Owens-Ilinois Timber Company that one of their employees had brought in a doe deer that had been caught in a barbed wire fence and was badly injured.

Upon examination, Smith determined the deer was beyond saving but that she was also pregnant, and appeared to be within a few days of giving birth.

Disappointingly, Smith destroyed the doe as humanely as possible and, along with Game Management Specialist Dick Couch, immediately began an emergency operation on the carcass that was to result in a successful caesarian birth of twin fawns.

"As soon as we opened the abdominal cavity, it was obvious the doe would have probably given normal birth in a very short time. Since the fawns were so fully developed, we thought we had a good chance of saving them," Smith said.

Smith said he doubted if they used standard veterinary procedure but, once the abdominal cavity was open, the two "midwives" opened the embryonic sacks, removed the fawns, tied and cut the umbilical cords, and cleaned and dried the newborn white tails. About two hours later, the tiny fawns were able to receive nourishment from a baby bottle.

Smith said similar occurrences with livestock were probably commonplace to most veterinarians but this was a far different experience from his usual examinations into the various deer carcasses he comes in contact with.

Two days after their birth, the tiny buck and doe fawns are progressing satisfactorily and are "in charge" of the Couch household. Smith said that as soon as the twins were able to care for themselves, an attempt would be made to return them to the woods in their natural environment.

Willis Receives Badge

Private Terry L. Willis, 19, son of Mrs. Rosa Hanna, 605 S.W. Fifth St., Belle Glade, received a parachutist badge upon completion of the three-week airborne course at the U.S. Army Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga. During the first week of training, he underwent rigorous physical training program and received instruction in the theory of parachuting.

The second week tested his ability through jumps from the 34-foot and 250-foot towers. The final week he was required to perform five static line parachute jumps.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Do you have any used..

- Clothes
- Furniture
- Bric-a-brac
- Jewelry
- Anything and Everything

Your donations are needed to help stock the resale store opening in the old Fabric Center building on Ave. A in downtown Belle Glade. Proceeds from the store will directly benefit the handicapped served at the Glades Habilitation Center (a branch of the Palm Beach Habilitation Center, Lake Worth) located in Osceola Center, Belle Glade. The center is open from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. to accept your donations. If you need items picked up please call the center at:

996-9094

The Glades Habilitation Center offers an individualized program of evaluation, training, or extended employment to the handicapped 16 years of age or older. Additional information may be obtained by calling the center. We need your help to continue and expand this much needed center. Thank you. (all donations tax deductible)
